

Quota Club to Have Party for Fifty Little Poor Girls Xmas Afternoon in 'Y. W.'

Salvation Army Will Have Tree for Nursery Children.
—Other Parties Planned.

Fifty little poor girls will be the guests of the Quota Club on Christmas Day; there will be a Christmas tree and Santa Claus will distribute presents to the children of the Salvation Army Nursery, and the day will be observed approximately in the Eagle Settlement House, Maple avenue, in Cook Hospital, and in Fairmont State Hospital.

The party of the Quota Club will be held Christmas afternoon in the auditorium of the Y. W. C. A. Building and will be in charge of the public affairs and welfare committee, of which the following are members: Miss Mary DeVol, chairman, Miss Margaret J. Latham, Miss Anna Tripp, Miss Bertie LaCasse and Miss Lucie Ford.

The little girls who will be guests of the club are being selected by Miss Ruth Heintzelman, school nurse, and they will be invited by written invitations distributed by the teachers of the city schools.

The money from the charity ball, which the club held recently in the Fairmont Hotel, will be used to furnish the party, and there will be a Christmas tree, prettily decorated with tinsel and bright colored balls, and Santa Claus will be present to distribute them; and there will be a pair of gloves for each little girl. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, fruit and candy will be served.

A similar party was held by the club last year, and it is expected to make it an annual affair.

Write to Santa Claus.

At present there are twenty-two children in the Salvation Army Nursery, only five of whom are boys, and they are busily engaged, each day, writing letters to Santa, for of course some new toy is thought of daily which the childish mind wants so a follow-up letter is written, or a postscript added.

On Christmas morning there will be a tree in the nursery and Santa Claus will be there, all dressed in his red suit with fur, to give away the toys which he has placed on the tree.

On the Thursday following Christmas an entertainment, consisting of songs and readings by the nursery children, will be given in the afternoon, and it is expected that Santa Claus will be present at that time.

Last year 125 baskets were given to poor people of the city by the Salvation Army before Christmas, and this year it will be done again. To make this possible, kettles, in which monetary contributions may be dropped, have been placed on the streets, and the money will be used in buying food for the baskets. The baskets will contain a dressed chicken, potatoes, tomatoes, corn, beans, celery, onions, jelly, fruit, sugar, bread and coffee. The number of baskets to be given this year will be determined by those needing them, and the contributions received in the kettles.

In the Hospitals.

The day will be observed approximately in the Eagle Settlement House, and the hostesses will be Mrs. Fred Heintzel, Mrs. W. D. Reed, Mrs. Alex Riheldaffer, Mrs. W. J. Boydston, Mrs. A. D. Craig, Mrs. Dent Powell and Mrs. E. A. Grose.

At the Fairmont State Hospital, there will be a tree, either on Christmas morning or Christmas eve, for the children who are patients, and Santa Claus will be present to distribute the gifts, which he will place on it, and there will be a present for every child. At noon, when the dinner is served, there will be a special treat of some kind for each patient.

On Christmas eve the nurses of Cook Hospital will have a tree, and will place on it their presents for each other, and a nice Christmas dinner will be served at noon on Christmas Day to all the patients who are able to eat it.

SOCIAL EVENTS

which the club will give to needy little children during the holidays. Twenty-three covers were laid for the luncheon.

The program was in charge of Miss Bertie Lucas, and the prize offered was awarded to Mrs. W. J. Lydie.

Woo-Fu to Meet.

Mrs. C. G. Riggs will entertain the Woo-Fu Club at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in her home in Maple avenue.

Engagement Announced.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Margaret May Mathers of Morgantown and George Milton Barrack of Man, W. Va. The announcement was made on Saturday at a party of pretty appointments at which Mrs. Max Mathers, her mother, was hostess at her home in Morgantown. Miss Mathers was graduated from Mount De Chantal Academy and was also a student at West Virginia University. She is a member of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority and is also a member of the Col. Evans Chapter of the D. A. R. Mr. Barrack is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barrack of Welsh W. Va., and was graduated from the Greepbrier Military Academy at Lewisburg. He also attended West Virginia University. He is now associated with his father in the coal business in Mc-present being superintendent of the Man Mining Co., at Man, W. Va.

Miss Mathers is well known in this city, having frequently visited here as the guest of Miss Louise Burns at her home on Locust avenue.

Married Sunday.

The marriage of Carlo Moccia and Miss Sarah Securo was solemnized at St. Joseph's Catholic Church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which the afternoon and evening was spent in dancing. They have taken up their residence at the home of the bride's parents.

'The Voice of West Virginia.'

Plans were formulated for the sale of "The Voice of West Virginia" at a meeting of the committee in charge of selling the book, which was compiled and published by the Business and Professional Women's Club of this city for the state federation. The book, which was attractively prepared, is a beautiful affair, and "one of them should be in the hands of every loyal citizen of West Virginia and should be sent also to other states in order that the state which is so beautifully displayed in the book may be advertised far and near." The book has been published at considerable expense and must be sold in order to defray these expenses. At the General Federation of Women's and Professional Women's Club held at Chattanooga, Tenn., last summer, the book was regarded as the most attractive souvenir given out. The federation of the state gave the books as souvenirs at a big expense in doing its bit in putting West Virginia before the states of the Union in its true light. The book costs 75 cents and is worth its price. It can be obtained from the members of the club or from the Fairmont Printing Co.

Mrs. Hily Entertains

Mrs. Chester P. Hily has hostess to the members of the Travelers Club at her home in South Park in Morgantown yesterday, the meeting beginning at 3 o'clock. Continuing the study of India the particular subject for discussion was "The Religions of India," led by Mrs. Del Roy Richards. Assistants Mrs. Richards were Mrs. Madison Stathers, who gave an interesting talk on the subject of Mohammedanism, and Mrs. Friend E. Clark, who told of some of the customs of Buddhism.

Mrs. L. D. Arnett read an interesting paper on "The Social Life and Customs of the Hindu."

At the close of the meeting the members held a delightful social session and Mrs. Hily served refreshments of an enjoyable nature.—Morgantown News-Dominion.

Mrs. Morgan Entertains

Mrs. E. F. Morgan, the charming hostess at the executive mansion, was at home yesterday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 6. Monday afternoon has been reserved by Mrs. Morgan for her formal at home days for the winter season.—Charleston Mail.
